

Education Team – Field Director Job Announcement

SEIU Local 1021 was founded in 2007 when ten local unions came together in Northern California to form one larger, more powerful union. Together our members are building a true 21st century union fighting to empower our members and improve our society. We are 54,000 strong - organizing and representing public service workers in cities, counties, courts, schools, private non-profits, special districts, public health care, nursing and higher education. We are looking for energetic, hard-working staff who are committed to real change, who believe in the value of work and the value of public services and who want to be part of the team that wins for workers, their families and their communities

LOCATION: Northern California:

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the supervision of the Executive Director Fields and Programs, this position has the responsibility to -

- Assist in creating and overseeing the implementation of 21st century internal organizing, industry and area-based plans.
- Act as internal agent of change, consistently challenging leaders and staff to think differently about their work and the new local's vision.
- Establish an internal campaign-based culture around bargaining, internal membership recruitment/agency shop, worksite issues, growth, politics, and to defend the union from attacks.
- Work with staff within their assigned regions/areas as a team and individually to set goals, create plans to meet those goals and ensure accountability to those plans.
- Lead the development of a team approach to the work - both among staff members and between staff and member leaders.
- Work closely with member leaders in assigned regions/areas to coordinate programs and campaigns for that area.
- Integrate strategic campaign functions, politics and new organizing into the daily work in the field.
- Coordinate, directly or through appointed staff, local-wide mobilization efforts, new member events, leadership conferences and other multi-team activities.
- Lead new organizing and political campaigns when needed.
- Identify staff training and development needs.
- Represent Local 1021 at various SEIU and other organization functions.
- Oversee the hiring, assigning, promoting, evaluating, counseling and discipline of subordinate staff, with the approval of the Executive Director Fields and Programs and Lead Director.
- Problem-solve and address the work-related concerns of subordinate staff.
- Trouble-shoot difficult situations and projects.

- Arrange for coverage of staff responsibilities during staff absences.
- Perform other related duties as required/assigned by the Executive Director Fields and Programs.

SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Advanced leadership skills.
- Work effectively with members and staff from diverse ethnic, social and economic groups.
- Exercise excellent judgment while working under extreme pressure.
- Establish and hold organizational priorities and standards.
- Manage leadership of teams in multiple industries, spread over wide geographic areas.
- Develop and mentor staff.
- Work effectively as part of the senior leadership team.

PREFERRED EXPERIENCE:

- 3+ years of supervisory experience.
- 5+ years of advocacy and/or organizing work.
- Proven ability to develop effective strategies and lead teams in a variety of assignments.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Salaried position; may require nonstandard work hours and/or weekend and holiday work.
- Extensive travel may be required, primarily within Northern California.
- Must possess a valid California driver's license; must pass a DMV check and have a good driving record; must have auto insurance that covers business driving (minimum of $100,000 per person/$300,000 per incident bodily injury liability/$50,000 property coverage); and must possess an automobile for business use
