West Virginia Resolution:
A video presentation was shown on how low wages impact the teachers in West Virginia and the fight they held to finally win. In Oklahoma, the teachers have not had a raise in 11 years and have called for a state wide strike on April 2nd for all public workers. We are asking our members to do something to show support the Oklahoma workers. The following Resolution was presented for the Board’s approval:

Whereas, Working families in the U.S. have experienced a 40 year assault on our standard of living. This steady erosion of wages, benefits, working conditions and respect on the job are connected to weakening of our unions, a reduction in public services, and a crumbling infrastructure; and

Whereas, President Trump has accelerated this process and is now waging an all out war on working people and the planet; and

Whereas, the looming Janus v. AFSCME Supreme Court ruling is intended to weaken public unions, starve SEIU 1021 of financial resources and undermine the ability of SEIU 1021 Members to bargain strong contracts; and

Whereas, some 33,000 members of the West Virginia Education Association, the American Federation of Teachers - West Virginia and the West Virginia School Personnel Association, representing teachers, cafeteria workers, clerical staff and bus drivers, staged a 9-day strike that ended in an amazing victory and showed that when we stand together and fight - we can win; and

Whereas, West Virginia is a so called ‘right to work’ state, where state workers do not have collective bargaining rights, where strikes by public workers are ‘illegal’, where West Virginia teachers rank 48th in pay among the 50 states and District of Columbia and is the state where Donald Trump won by the highest margin of any state
Whereas, despite these obstacles, West Virginia teachers and classified employees, 75% of whom were women, struck all 55 counties, filled the capital rotunda with their chants of “We are worthy, we are worthy”, winning a 5% pay raise for all state workers, rolling back anti-union legislation that would have gutted seniority, prohibited dues deduction and further weakened unions; and

Whereas, in doing so, the courageous and tenacious public employees of West Virginia took a decisive stand for their communities, their families and the children in the public school system of West Virginia; and

Whereas, the victorious public worker strike in West Virginia struck a chord throughout the country with teachers and classified employees in Arizona, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Jersey City being inspired to take action. The Oklahoma Education Association has set April 2nd for a state wide strike. Oklahoma teachers are the lowest paid teachers in the country and the workers are demanding a $10,000 raise and a stop to privatizing public schools. The Oklahoma public employees union announced it will joining in the strike; and

Whereas, a victory for the union movement in Oklahoma, coming on the heels of a victory for the union movement in West Virginia, would be a victory for the entire union movement across the United States; and

Whereas, West Virginia and Oklahoma teachers and classified school employees are showing the entire country what can happen when we stand together in solidarity; Therefore

Be it resolved, that SEIU Local 1021 stands in solidarity with the public employees in Oklahoma who may strike on April 2nd. If Oklahoma workers strike, the Executive Board of SEIU Local 1021 encourages Local 1021 Members to participate in a ‘day of action’ on April 2nd to support the Oklahoma workers. “Day of Action” solidarity can take the form of a unity break, purpling up, wearing stickers or armbands, passing the hat among your co-workers, buying a few pizzas for the strike line or any other action your Chapter deems appropriate. Be creative! Whatever you do, take a selfie and send it to our communications team (mike.richardson@seiu1021.org) so we can forward them to the strike lines in Oklahoma. Any funds that you raise can be sent to workers in either West Virginia or Oklahoma https://www.gofundme.com/oklahoma-teachers-united https://www.gofundme.com/wv-teachers-strike-fund or forwarded to your field rep so they can be sent to our Brothers and Sisters in Oklahoma.

M/S/C (Sandberg/Schardt) to approve the resolution.
