Section 9.08 ASSIGNMENTS OUT OF JOB GRADE. If an employee is temporarily assigned to a lower job grade than that in which the employee is regularly assigned, no reduction in pay will be effected. Such temporary assignments will be made only to assure continuity and quality of program activity.

All hours worked in a job grade with a higher starting wage rate than the job grade of the employee shall be paid a differential of two dollars ($2.00) per hour.

Section 9.09 ALTERNATE WORK SCHEDULE, ALTERNATIVE/REMOTE SERVICES and REMTOE WORK/WORK FROM HOME. Alternate work schedules may be utilized to meet participant and employee needs. These alternate work schedules may include variations including but not limited to an individual employee's work days, location, hours worked per day remote work/work from home and scheduled days off. The following process will be utilized for employees requesting such alternate work schedules or remote work/work from home:

- (c) The immediate supervisor will process the request with the decision level manager. The order of criteria used to evaluate the request shall be 1) participant need, 2) employee availability/need and 3) seniority within the department.
- (d) In the event the request is approved the employee will be notified in writing with a copy provided to HR. If the effective date of the request is at the request of the employee and is less than one week from the approval notice, the one (1) week notice requirement in Section 9.04 will not apply.
- (e) In the event the request is denied, in whole or part, the employee may request review of the denial by the Senior Director of Administration. The decision of the Senior Director of Administration will be final and binding and not subject to the grievance procedure.

Alternate work schedules are subject to change and/or cancellation based upon client and organizational needs. In the event an alternate work schedule is changed by the Employer the employee will be provided advance notice of at least one (1) week prior to the effective date of the change. The employee may request review of the change by the Senior Director of Administration. The decision of the Senior Director of Administration will be final and binding and not subject to the grievance procedure.

The Employer may identify alternate work schedules (such as a 4x9.5 work week). The Employer will provide notice to the union and impacted employees and, upon request, meet with the union and employees to review the alternate work schedule.

Following are the provisions related to a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule that may be used in the event another alternate work schedule is identified:

- (f) In order to qualify for a 4 x 9.5 [equivalent to thirty-eight (38) hours or more] work week schedule, an employee must have successfully completed their introductory period.
- (g) Maintaining a list of those employees who wish to be offered a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule will remain the responsibility of the Senior Director of Administration.
- (h) The Employer will contact, in list order, employees who by placing their name on the list have expressed their interest in a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule. The Employer will offer the available schedule to the employee whose name is at the top of the list.
- (i) Once contacted, employees will have until close of business on the second (2nd) business day after the offer to notify the Employer of their acceptance of the offer of a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule, or the offer will be deemed to have been declined. Any request for adding or deleting a name to the master list must be made in writing by the requesting employee to the Senior Director of Administration.
- (j) Employees who work a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule will earn overtime pay in accordance with the law.
- (k) Employees who work a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule will receive breaks and meal periods in accordance with the law, otherwise if an employee works beyond ten (10) hours in a work day, they will receive an additional fifteen (15) minute break; if an employee works beyond twelve (12) hours in a work day, they will receive an additional thirty (30) minute meal period. Any additional hours worked beyond the regular 4 x 9.5 work week must be previously authorized by the employee's supervisor.
- (l) Employees who work a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule will accrue annual leave and sick leave based on a nine and one-half (9.5) hour day and will be paid nine and one-half (9.5) hours for each paid holiday.
- (m) Employees who work a 4 x 9.5 work week schedule must give the Employer at least a thirty (30) day advance notice in writing to request a change of schedule to a non-alternative schedule. The Employer will make every effort to replace scheduled hours of work within thirty (30) days. If the Employer determines within thirty (30) days that a request cannot be accommodated, then the requesting employee must elect to remain in the 4 x 9.5 schedule or the employee will be deemed to have resigned.

- (n) Should an employee to whom the Employer has offered an available 4 x 9.5 work week schedule decline the offer, the employee's name will be removed from the list. Employees can add their name to the bottom of the list any time they wish. Any request for adding or deleting a name to the list must be made in writing by the requesting employee to the Senior Director of Administration.
- (o) Occasionally, due to client need, vacancies may arise that result in a loss of schedule. These vacancies may include, but are not limited to, situations such as client demit or client mortality. When these situations arise the Employer will make every effort to replace scheduled hours of work. As part of its efforts, the Employer will offer such employees preference for a 4 x 9.5 hour work week schedule and adjust the top of the list accordingly, preferring employees who have a deficit of scheduled hours of work with the highest amount of hours first and following in succeeding order.
- (p) In the event that the Employer re-assigns staff from an alternative work schedule (up to 4 x 9.5) to a traditional schedule (5 day week) the affected employee shall not suffer a loss of hours of original 4 x 9.5 worked due to this change.
- (q) In the event alternative/remote services are reduced or expanded in a timeframe that does not provide the notice required in Section 9.04 Work Schedule the Employer shall inform affected employee(s) in writing as soon as practicable. The criteria used for evaluating the new schedules/work locations shall be 1) participant need, 2) employee availability/need and 3) seniority within the department.

Section 9.10 ESSENTIAL FIELD WORK. In the event a Federal, State or Local governmental agency issues a recommendation or order which results in the Employer moving employees to remote work, and in accordance with continuation of essential services as defined by California Code of Regulations Title 17, if an employee is required to perform work in the field the employee will receive a differential for all hours worked in the field. Such differential will be paid for the duration of the recommendation or order. The parties will meet as soon as practicable after the issuance of the governmental agency recommendation or order to determine the amount of the hourly differential and any other changes to hours or terms and conditions of employment.

Step 1: Grievances shall initially be taken up orally by the Employer with a Union officer or steward in an attempt to resolve the matter on an informal basis within seven (7) working days of the date on which the Employer came into knowledge of the incident.

Step 2: If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, it shall be reduced to writing by the Employer and submitted to the Union Field Representative. Such written grievance shall contain a clear written statement of the nature of the grievance, the date of the alleged violation, the section(s) of the Agreement on which the grievance is based, the proposed remedy to the grievance, and the signature of the Executive Director. In order to be valid, the grievance must be so submitted within seventeen (17) working days of the date on which the Employer came into knowledge of the incident. At the request of either party a meeting may be held to investigate and attempt to resolve the grievance. A written response will be made by the Union Field Representative within twenty-seven (27) working days of the date on which the Employer came into knowledge of the incident.

Step 3: If the grievance still remains unresolved, it may be directly referred to binding arbitration, within thirty-seven (37) working days of the date on which the Employer came into knowledge of the incident. Upon receipt of a written request for arbitration of a grievance or dispute under this procedure, the Employer and the Union shall select a mutually agreeable impartial Arbitrator. The Employer shall initiate selection of the Arbitrator by submitting a list of potential Arbitrators acceptable to the Employer from which the Union is invited to select one (1). In the event that the parties cannot agree on an impartial Arbitrator within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the Employer list of potential Arbitrators, either party may request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of five (5) representative Arbitrators. Each party shall alternately scratch two (2) names from the list, the first scratch being by lot, and the person remaining shall be the Arbitrator. Upon selection of the Arbitrator, the Union and the Employer shall attempt to schedule the Arbitration to be held within ninety (90) days of the notice to the Arbitrator of their selection. If the Arbitrator is not available, the Union and the Employer will mutually agree to extend the ninety (90)-day period. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement. All expenses of arbitration shall be paid equally by the Employer and the Union. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties and shall be issued within thirty (30) days of the arbitration hearing.

The Employer may bring an expedited grievance for any claim that the no-strike clause of this Agreement has been violated. If the Employer grievance concerns a violation of the no-strike clause and the grievance is not resolved within 24 hours the grievance procedure may be initiated at Step 3 with the selection of an Arbitrator.

Section 29.02 EMPLOYEE/UNION GRIEVANCES. The Union shall not solicit, initiate, or continue any individual employee grievance or grievance process without the active participation and agreement of the employee at each step. The Union through its officers, stewards, or Union Field Representative shall have the right to initiate employee grievances or the grievance process on the Union's behalf.

Step 1: Grievances shall initially be taken up orally by the employee and/or the Union officer or steward with the immediate supervisor in an attempt to resolve the matter on an informal basis within seven (7) working days of the employee having knowledge of the incident or the date of disciplinary action. For written actions not delivered in person the time limit will commence with the date of the returned receipt of the written action sent to the employee. At the request of either party a meeting shall be held to investigate and attempt to resolve the grievance. The request should include clear communication the subject of the meeting involves a grievance.

Step 2: If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, it shall be reduced to writing by the employee or his/her representative and submitted to the second level supervisor and the Senior Director of Administration. Such written grievance shall contain a clear statement of the nature of the grievance, the date of the alleged violation, the section(s) of the Agreement on which the grievance is based, the proposed remedy to the grievance, why the resolution proposed at Step 1 is not acceptable, and the signature of the grievant, officer, steward or the Union Field Representative. In order to be valid, the grievance must be so submitted within seventeen (17) working days of the date on which employee came into knowledge of the incident or the date of disciplinary action. At the request of either party a meeting shall be held to investigate and attempt to resolve the grievance. A written response will be made by the Employer within twenty-seven (27) working days of the date on which employee came into knowledge of the incident or the date of disciplinary action.

Step 3: If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 2, it may be presented in writing to the Executive Director by the Union officer, Union Field Representative, steward or the employee within thirty-four (34) working days of the date on which employee came into knowledge of the incident or the date of disciplinary action. In order to be valid, the grievance shall contain a clear written statement of why the resolution proposed at Step 2 is not acceptable. At the request of either party a meeting shall be held to investigate and attempt to resolve the grievance. The Executive Director, or designee, shall give a written response within forty-one (41) working days of the date on which employee came into knowledge of the incident or the date of disciplinary action.

Step 4: If the grievance still remains unresolved, it may be directly referred to binding arbitration, no later than fifty-one (51) working days after the date on which employee came into knowledge of the incident or the date of disciplinary action. The Union shall simultaneously initiate selection of the Arbitrator by submitting a list of potential Arbitrators acceptable to the Union from which the Employer is invited to select. In the event that the parties cannot agree on an impartial Arbitrator within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the Union list of potential Arbitrators, either party may request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of five (5) representative Arbitrators. Each party shall alternately scratch two (2) names from the list, the first scratch being selected by lot, and the person remaining shall be the Arbitrator. Upon selection of the Arbitrator the Union and the Employer shall attempt to schedule the Arbitration to be held within ninety (90) days of the notice to the Arbitrator of their selection. If the Arbitrator is not available, the Union and the Employer will mutually agree to extend the ninety (90)-day period. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement. All expenses of arbitration shall be paid equally by the Employer and the Union. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties and shall be issued within thirty (30) days of the arbitration hearing.

Section 29.03 TIME LIMITS. Time limits in the grievance procedure may be extended or waived only by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union or the employee. If either party fails to comply with the grievance time limits, the grievance will be determined in favor of the other party. This Article 29 GRIEVANCE & ARBITRATION PROCEDURE shall constitute the sole and exclusive method for resolving any and all grievances between the Employer and the Union or the employee.
