Basic Steward Training
Designed for new stewards, this course focuses on the rights and roles of union leaders, legal protections for stewards, problem-solving 101, and Weingarten rights.

Intermediate Steward Training
For those who already know the basics, this course looks closer at grievances and investigations, the tests of just cause, dealing with management, and the union's right to information.

Advanced Steward Training I
Stewards who wish to learn how to build solidarity, organize around issues, have effective conversations, and recruit members should attend this class.

Advanced Steward Training II
Stewards who wish to develop their skills in putting arguments together and presenting cases as well as writing grievances are invited to attend. Intermediate Steward Training is a pre-requisite.

Labor Management Committees: Tips and Traps
Labor-Management Committees (LMCs) can be a useful strategy for representing members, especially when new issues arise mid-contract. On the downside, LMCs can be a way for management to appear to listen, without actually doing anything, tying up important issues in endless investigation/ conversation. At their worst LMCs can drift into dangerous territory and be utilized by management to delay or divide the union.

A Collective Response to Workplace Bullying
Workplace bullying has negative effects not just on the targeted individual – it can lead to a culture of fear and retaliation and a decline in employee morale. In this interactive workshop we'll learn the perspectives and tools needed to develop our collective courage to overcome divisions at our work sites and build unity and respect among coworkers. The course will be facilitated by professional trainer and coach, Joe Fahey, former President of Teamsters Local 912 who is featured in the book White Men Challenging Racism.
